The California Conservation Corps has scheduled orientation sessions in Anaheim to tell young people about CCC jobs throughout the state.

To fill openings for full-time CCC positions, orientation sessions will be held in Anaheim Monday, March 28 through Wednesday, March 30, from 10 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Corps staff will be on hand at the Employment Development Department office, 2450 E. Lincoln Avenue in Anaheim. Parents are welcome to attend.

Applicants must be between 18 and 25 years of age, California residents and not on probation or parole. Women are encouraged to apply. Those attending the orientation session should bring a photo ID and either a Social Security card or birth certificate.

The CCC currently has positions available at several residential centers in northern California, including a facility near Lake Tahoe. The centers have dorms and dining halls, and the Corps deducts room and board at those locations.
